

Getting It Ready.....

Technological Best Fit

Clive Furness

Managing Director

Budapest – Wednesday, 4th February 2009

One Year on....

- A different world
 - What have we learned?
 - The first world really doesn't know it all!
 - Technology will be one of the keys to investor confidence
 - Trading, clearing, settlement
 - Is small beautiful?
 - Does a regional perspective still work in view of global issues?
 - Should we be wary of development or embrace opportunities?

Today

- An open and informal review of actual projects
- How partnerships have worked and why
- What the implementers have learned – both good and bad!
- A wide variety of products and markets
- No sales pitches – just helpful dialogue
- Open dialogue – if you can contribute please do

Today (continued)

- Beer
- Enjoy.....
